

Workforce Consulting Services

We can help you put the strategic pieces together

The Workforce Consulting Services Team partners with agencies to provide consultation in a variety of areas related to workforce planning. These areas include: workforce data analysis, environmental scanning, developing model workforce planning processes, which are designed to increase workforce productivity, and identifying outcome priorities, present and future competency needs and HR strategies that align with an organization's business goals.

What we can do for you

Workforce Consulting Services

What we can do for you

- Measure and assess performance and staff competencies
- Provide consultation services to agencies on best practices and customized HR solutions to complex HR needs
- Provide workforce planning reviews, feedback, consultation services, and training
- Submit an annual, comprehensive enterprise workforce plan to the Governor's office
- Manage customized, agency-unique workforce planning projects
- Conduct climate surveys
- Manage organizational assessment and workforce planning projects
- Provide succession planning reviews, feedback, consultation services and training

For more information, call 404-656-2705